Item #ZAHR45800

Description:

This rare painting was recently unearthed in the basement of the McGilldishu Heights Museum. Appraisers have confirmed that the work was created by renowned Zaharian artist Matt Kostakis-Zahar, who painted "Zaharia, Unite Against Tyranny" after a successful political rally, bake sale and car wash in Zahrville, 1987 to demonstrate his dedication to the Zaharian cause and finish off the leftover red and green paint he used on his garage.
